

Conquer termites' song,

written by David Bell, August 2013

Chorus:

Oh no, this home owner doesn't know,
termites going loco, right beneath his nose.

While he took, the time to check his Facebook,
and bought something on Ebay, termites ate his home away.

Verse 1:

Yeah we're very sneaky, and we have just begun,
there's no insurance when the, damage is already done.

Verse 2:

We just came from your neighbours, they were very tense,
so they called Conquer Termites, so we jumped the fence.

Chorus ---

Verse 3:

Knock knock "who's there?" Termites, "termites who?"
Termites come uninvited, cause' that's what termites do.

Verse 4:

And lately, we've populated greatly, into your place maybe,
cause there's always a way.

Rap:

From soft pine to hardwood, from Strathpine to Underwood.
We don't mind it's all good.
We eat cause' we can and we have cause' we could.
My friend said that we're movin' in, bet he didn't tell you how.
Gotta say what a lovely place, 'n that I'm feelin' a little peckish right now.

Chorus ---

Verse 5:

It's scientifically known, that we've significantly – grown.
We don't mean to scare, but we're everywhere!

Verse 6:

And like a fish on a plate, don't be sold on the bait,
Just call Conquer Termites, "before it's too late!"

Chorus ---
